

Composition Examination Board - Faculty of Bioscience Engineering

1. The exam committee exists of at least 5 and maximally 8 voting members, including the chairperson and secretary. The promotor(s) are additional members of the examination board, yet they are not eligible to vote.
2. At least 2 voting members do not belong to the faculty, one of those 2 members does not belong to UGent.
3. At least half of the voting members are eligible in their institution to act as promotor of a phd.
4. At least half of the voting members are UGent staff.
5. Not more than half of the voting members belong to the doctoral guidance committee or are co-author on a publication that forms an integral part of the dissertation or any other peer-reviewed publication that was submitted or got accepted.
6. The chairperson and secretary belong to the staff of faculty professors. The chairperson is affiliated with a department, different from that of the promotors. The secretary can come from the same department.