

CALL FOR PAPERS

GHENT CONFERENCE ON INTERNATIONAL TAXATION

The Taxation Research Group at the Faculty of Economics and Business Administration of Ghent University is proud to invite you to the first edition of the Ghent Conference on International Taxation, which will take place on 27 and 28 April 2023 in Ghent, Belgium.

The aim of this conference is to provide scholars working on international taxation research from a (business) economics point-of-view with the opportunity to share and discuss their recent work. Topics may include, but are not limited to: tax avoidance, reporting, compliance, transparency, harmonization, and managerial decisions.

Each presenter will receive individual comments on their research project from a discussant. Additionally, feedback will be received from the attendees, keynote speakers, and organizers in a friendly atmosphere.

Keynote speakers

We are happy to announce that the two keynote speakers for this edition will be:

Prof. Dr. Eva Eberhartinger
WU Vienna University of Economics and Business

Prof. Dr. Michael Overesch
University of Cologne

Submission guidelines

Please submit your full paper or extended abstract (3 to 5 pages) to TaxationConference@UGent.be in Word or PDF format by Monday, 16 January 2023. Notifications of acceptance will be sent out in early March.

Conference registration

The registration fee of €75 will cover all catering and social events during the conference. More details regarding registration will follow soon. Click here to receive updates.

Venue

The conference will take place in the heart of the historical city center of Ghent:

Het Pand
Onderbergen 1, 9000 Ghent, Belgium

Organizing committee

Annelies Roggeman
Isabelle Verleyen
Dave Goyvaerts

For more information, please contact TaxationConference@UGent.be, or click here to receive updates.