

IDC Crime, Criminology & Criminal Policy

The IDC Crime, Criminology and Criminal Policy is one of UGent's ten interdisciplinary consortia with focus on societal impact (IDC). The IDC Crime brings together 20+ professors and their staff, working interdisciplinarily on topics related to security, crime and deviance in local, national, European and international contexts. The IDC works together with other research institutes, policy makers, civil society actors and international organizations fostering knowledge transfer, societal engagement and impact.

WORKING TOGETHER TOWARDS 4 GOALS

ENABLING RESEARCHERS to conduct more interdisciplinary and transdisciplinary research, apply through diverse funding channels and plan valorisation and societal impact	Detecting and stimulating SYNERGIES AND COOPERATION within the group and with partners from different disciplines and outside academia	Obtaining RESEARCH FUNDING for interdisciplinary projects to conduct societal relevant research	Strengthening SOCIETAL VALUE CREATION initiatives and pathways to impact, including impact measurement
